By-Law 10: Code of Ethics

10.1. Members will act with integrity in their cattle breeding practice, in showing and in all dealings with members and non-members, to protect and improve the good standing and reputation of the Australian Lowline breed, the Association and the members..

10.2. Members will not knowingly make untruthful statements in submitting applications for registration or when entering animals in shows.

10.3. Members will not neglect or mistreat their animal(s) but, on the contrary, at all times safeguard and further its (their) well-being.

10.4. Members will not transfer any animal to a party whom they feel will not conscientiously look after its health, safety and well-being, or may exploit, degrade or otherwise act to the detriment of the breed or the animal.

10.5. Members will only breed animals that they know to be in good condition and health.

10.6. Members will represent their animals honestly to prospective buyers and give such advice or assistance to the buyers as may reasonably be requested.

10.7. Members will be alert for and work to eradicate or control inherited problems or other conditions inimical to the breed

10.8. When selling both full blood and crossbred females, members will emphasise to the purchaser that Australian Lowline cattle are small for reasons of selective genetic breeding over several generations and that if a Lowline female (whether purebred or crossbred) is joined to a bull carrying genes of any larger breed, the resulting calf could be oversized to the point of endangering the dam at calving.

History:

By-Laws 10.2, 10.3, 10.4, 10.5, 10.6, 10.7 and 10.8 are from the Code of Ethics from the original Schedule A.

By-Law 10.1 was rewritten during the 2012-13 Constitutional Review.

One item was moved during the 2012-13 Constitutional Review and became By-Law 4.
